A Holiday Salad

By Frances Lee Barton

THE cranberry is sour
When you pluck it from the vine.
Though served as pie or zestful jell
It's surely mighty fine.
But how about a salad
With cranberries
—well ground?
This novel dish
meets every wish.
The flavor will astound.

Cranberry and Grape Salad

1 package raspberry-flavored gelatin; 1 pint hot water; ½ cup sugar; 2 cups cranberries, ground; ½ orange, unpeeled and ground; 1 cup seedless white grapes or Malaga grapes, halved and seeded; ½ cup coarsely chopped walnut or pecan meats.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add sugar. Chill. When partially thickened, add cranberries, orange, grapes, and nuts. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Serves 6 to 8.

Coal in U. S.

One-third of the world's supply of coal is produced annually in the United States.

YOUNG MAN WITH GIFT OF GAB

While Harry (Burgess Meredith) is neither ambitious nor rich, and marriage with him promises nothing more material than living in a shack (see inset), he must have plenty of speed and control to kindle that light that's in Janie's (Ginger Rogers) eyes. A scene from Ginger Rogers' new RKO Radio comedy hit, "Tom, Dick and Harry," now playing at the Daly City theatre. George Murphy and Alan Marshal are featured.

Gumbo Casserole with PINEAPPLE TOP

by Dorothy Greig

My jolly feather-pillow of an Aunt Annie was never so chuckling content as when passing on to us young ones her cooking lore. "To make a fine dish you do need good ingredients," she'd say. "But it's what you do with them that really counts."

This Gumbo Casserole always reminds me of that particular bit of Aunt Annie's philosophy. Its chief ingredients are chicken meat, a drift of hot snowy rice, tender pink ham, cut in small pieces. And we treat them handsomely . . . first, by blending in condensed chicken soup which spreads lovely chicken flavor through and through the dish. Then we finish with a topping of glazed pineapple and serve the casserole gently sizzling and fragrant right from the oven.

1 can condensed chicken gumbo soup
2 cups cooked rice
½ cup chicken, diced
½ cup ham, diced
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento

Cut the chicken and ham in 3/16 inch dices. Combine the cooked rice, diced chicken, diced ham and chopped pimientos. Then add the chicken gumbo soup. Mix together and put into a buttered casserole—either one large one or five individual casseroles. Serves 5.

Pineapple Ring Tops:

8 slices pineapple
24 whole cloves
2 teaspoons brown sugar
2 teaspoons butter

Arrange the pineapple rings on the top of the rice mixture. On each pineapple ring:

1. sprinkle 1 teaspoon brown sugar
2. dot with 1 teaspoon butter
3. put in 3 whole cloves

Place the casseroles in a moderate (375° F.) oven for 15-35 minutes until thoroughly heated and pineapple rings are glazed.

Home Work

Since the invasion of Holland and Belgium, members of the senate committee handling army and navy affairs have taken to holding off-the-record evening meetings in each other's homes to brush up on the facts about Uncle Sam's defenses, with high United States military experts invited in as "teachers." The speed with which the senate has acted on national defense measures is taken as evidence that the senators are apt pupils and learn fast.

A Tart Apple Dainty

By Frances Lee Barton

IT'S hard to find a fruit that lends itself to so many healthful desserts as the apple—particularly one of the tart varieties.

Apple sauce, apple pie, baked apples—but let us stop right here and give a recipe for the best baked apple dessert you have tried for a long time. It's certainly a tart apple dainty.

Coconut Baked Apples

6 tart apples, cored; ¾ cup sugar; ½ can moist, sweetened coconut; 2 tablespoons sugar; ½ teaspoon orange extract; ½ cup cream, whipped.

Place apples in baking dish, and sprinkle with ¾ cup sugar. Cover and bake in hot oven (400° F.) 30 minutes, or until done. Cool.

Fold ½ cup coconut, 2 tablespoons sugar, and orange extract into whipped cream. Fill centers of apples with cream mixture. Top with remaining coconut. Chill before serving. Serves 6.

Most Spanish Spot

The most Spanish spot under the American flag is the romantic city of Ponce, on the southern coast of the United States territory of Puerto Rico. Although Ponce was the first city to be entered by the Americans who took Puerto Rico in 1898, it has been the last to give up the Latin heritage it derived from its Conquistadores. English is spoken widely in Puerto Rico, but Spanish is the prevailing language in this stronghold of old Castille.

For Sunday Night Supper
HOT SANDWICHES fill the bill

says Dorothy Greig

Hot mushroom sauce over a ham and cornbread sandwich is an appetizing dish for Sunday night supper.

WHEN it comes time to whisk together Sunday night supper someone is always sure to announce, "I'm not really hungry. All I want is a snack."

However, it's the wise woman who calmly ignores the just-a-snackers. For under all such remarks usually lurks a husky appetite. Taken literally at their word and given just a bite or two, they'd all be back raiding the ice box later in the evening.

So we suggest hot sandwiches for supper. They satisfy the mind's eye of a light bite while at the same time supplying good honest sustaining nourishment. Put together with meat or cheese or eggs or maybe tuna fish or chicken, hot sandwiches have zest as well as substance.

Here, for instance, is one that can be made either with corn bread or with toast. (It's particularly good with corn bread.) And as a climax it is topped with a hot and savory mushroom sauce!

Southern Ham Sandwich with Hot Mushroom Sauce

6 pieces corn bread, about 3 inches square
6 slices ham, boiled or baked

Mushroom Sauce

1 can condensed cream of mushroom soup
¼ cup milk

Stir the ¼ cup of milk into the condensed cream of mushroom soup. Heat, but do not boil. While the sauce is heating, split the pieces of corn bread and toast them. Then place the ham between the toasted slices of corn bread and pour the hot mushroom sauce over the top.

Cheese and bacon is an ever popular combination.

Open Grilled Cheese and Bacon Sandwich, Tomato Sauce

6 slices bacon
3 slices cheese (size of bread)
3 pieces bread or toast
1 can condensed tomato soup

Cut the long slices of bacon in half and broil on one side. Cover the slices of bread or toast with pieces of cheese cut about ½ inch thick and on each slice place two pieces of bacon. Broil until the cheese is melted and bacon crisp. Pour 2 tablespoons of hot condensed tomato soup over each slice and serve immediately. Serves 4 large or 8 small open sandwiches.

And try this version of our old friend, scrambled eggs:

Scrambled Egg and Mushroom Sandwiches

4 eggs
¼ cup condensed cream of mushroom soup
½ teaspoon salt
Pinch of pepper

Beat the eggs. Then add the cream of mushroom soup, salt and pepper and beat again. Melt the butter in a frying pan or saucepan; add egg mixture and cook over a low heat, stirring constantly until thick. Put the cooked eggs and mushrooms between slices of buttered toast. Serves 4

Make Your Own Tea Rings

—By Frances Lee Barton—

IF you make a filled tea ring from the following recipe you will have something to be proud of. Yes! It takes a little time, but it settles the "what to serve" problem and thus takes a real load off your mind as well.

Pineapple Filled Tea Ring

2 cups sifted cake flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ½ teaspoon salt; 4 tablespoons butter or other shortening; 1 egg, slightly beaten; 10 tablespoons heavy cream; pineapple filling.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Cut in shortening. Combine egg and cream; add all at once to flour mixture and stir until all flour is dampened. Then stir vigorously until mixture forms a soft dough and follows spoon around bowl. Turn out on slightly floured board and knead 30 seconds. Roll into oblong sheet, 7 x 10 inches. Spread evenly with pineapple filling. Roll as for jelly roll, wetting edges to seal. Cut in ten 1-inch slices. Pinch each slice at sealed edge into rounding point. Place a 2-inch cooky cutter in center of greased baking sheet. Arrange slices in circle around cutter, having points touch cutter. Pat lightly to shape. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 25 minutes, or until done. Remove to cake rack and while hot spread with glaze made by combining ¾ cup sifted confectioners' sugar, 2 teaspoons pineapple juice and ½ teaspoon lemon juice. Serve warm or cold.

To make pineapple filling, combine 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 tablespoons cake flour, and dash of salt in top of double boiler. Add gradually ½ cup canned pineapple juice, mixing thoroughly. Add ¾ cup well drained canned crushed pineapple. Place over boiling water and cook 8 minutes, stirring constantly. Combine 1 egg yolk, slightly beaten, and 2 teaspoons lemon juice. Add to pineapple mixture and continue cooking 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Chill.

This ring may be stored in refrigerator for 2 hours before baking. Cover closely with waxed paper and damp cheesecloth.

President Arrested

Ulysses S. Grant was the only President ever arrested during his term of office. He loved fast horses, always had several in the White House stables, and had taken the highest mark for horsemanship in his class at West Point. His record in the high jumps has never been equaled. One day he was driving a spirited team in Washington, exceeded the speed limit, and was arrested by a colored policeman. The President put up a deposit of $20, but never appeared at the police court, and commended the colored policeman for doing his duty.

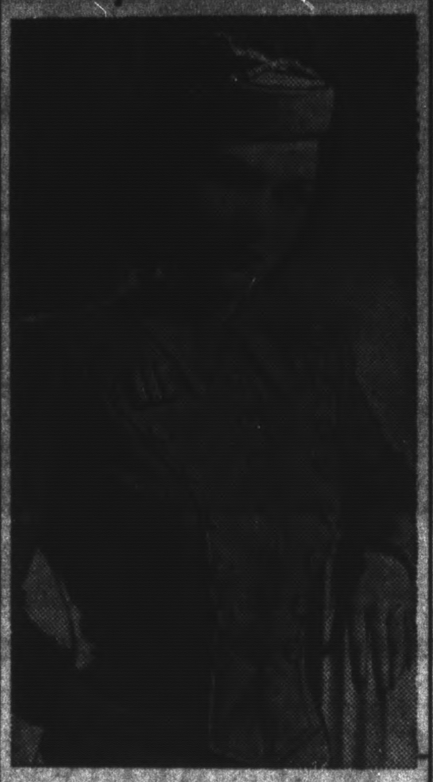
Good for Bad Weather



HAIR ENCASING HATS are having a big vogue this year. Not only are they seductively attractive, but also protect locks against damp or blustery winds. CBS actress Charlotte Manson of the "Stepmother" cast wears Lil Picard's pink angora pillbox with black chenille snood trimmed from crown to snood's edge with a series of little pink angora bows. Notice her Lucien Lelong "Quick Change" novelty clip which contains three lipsticks to match any color costume at any time of day.

Testing Tires

A machine has been invented to test the durability of automobile tires by subjecting samples of their material to twice the number of hot spots to which the tires would be subjected in use.

Our used cars win applause from wise buyers, through their dependable performance. Why not ask for a demonstration and see for yourself the BIG VALUE offered!

Horse Rider Guilty

It isn't always necessary to have 90 horsepower under the hood to drive in a reckless manner. A Boulder man had only a one horsepower vehicle under him when he drew such a charge. Riding a horse, he was accused of behaving so recklessly that two girls, walking in the road, were injured.

Not Religious

It has been estimated that only about 5 per cent of London's population concerns itself with church going.

The United States army consists of the regular army, national guard and organized reserves.
